2020 Veterans Day Poster and Poem Contest

Paralyzed Veterans of America Great Plains Chapter

Contest Rules and Guidelines

I. Contest Theme and Criteria

The theme for the 2020 Veterans Day Poster and Poem Contest is Creating Accessible Communities for Paralyzed Veterans. Students should draw a poster or write a poem that shows or tells how they would make their community more accessible for veterans who use wheelchairs. Posters must include the visual/image of a wheelchair and poems must reference the use of a wheelchair.

The poster contest is open to students in first through fourth grades.

The poem contest is open to students in fifth through eighth grades.

II. Contest Deadline

All poster and poem entries must be received by Wednesday, October 28, 2020. See submission guidelines below. Participants (teachers, group leaders, parents) of winning students will be contacted no later than Friday, November 6, 2020. Entries that do not meet the deadline or guidelines will be automatically disqualified.

III. Contest Grade Categories and Grand Prize Winners

Voting for the contest should be evaluated in the following grade categories:

- First and second grades category: Poster
- Third and fourth grades category: Poster
- Fifth and sixth grades category: Poem
- Seventh and eighth grades category: Poem

Please note:

- Each grade category (first and second grades, third and fourth grades, fifth and sixth grades, and seventh and eighth grades) should have a winner, so four grade category winners overall.
- The poster with the most votes is the grand prize winner overall for the poster contest and the poem with the most votes is the grand prize winner overall for the poem contest.
- The grand prize winner overall for the poster contest should not be a poster grade category winner. The grand prize winner overall for the poem contest should not be a poem grade category winner.

IV. Poster and Poem Submission Guidelines

All posters and poems must be the work of only one student, consisting of the student's own creativity, words and/or thoughts.

Poems must be submitted in English and the maximum word count is 75.

All entries must be received via email at vazquez@greatplainspva.org by Wednesday, October 28, 2020.

Each entry must be labeled with the student's details:

- First Name
- Last Name
- Grade
- Age
- School/Teacher

Each entry must also have a completed Entry Form attached that has been signed by the student's parent or guardian.

Poster and poem entries submitted via email may be in the form of photos or scanned files (JPG, PNG or PDF formats only).

Upon submission, all posters and poems become the property of Paralyzed Veterans of America, which reserves the right to reproduce submissions, and will not be returned. By submitting entries, contest entrants (students) voluntarily assign all intellectual property rights in their creations to Paralyzed Veterans of America.

Poster and poem submissions may be posted on social media via a Facebook album and/or Twitter feed or displayed in a public space at the chapter.

Please refer to the Consent and Publicity Release Entry Form for details.

V. Eligibility

The contest is open to public, private and home-schooled students living in the United States in first through eighth grades. Civic organizations, scout troops and religious organizations that work with children may also submit entries.

VI. Judging

Prize winners for each grade category and the grand prize winner of the poster contest and the grand prize winner of the poem contest will be determined by a panel of Paralyzed Veterans of America members.

The following criteria will be considered in determining the winners: Expression of theme, creativity, content, style and/or writing.

VII. Prizes

- Grade category winners will be awarded a $25 Target Gift Card.
- Grand prize winners will be awarded a plaque and a $25 Target Gift Card.
- Prize winners will be featured in PVA Great Plains Chapter's newsletter and website.

- Teachers of the winning students will also be awarded a $25 Target Gift Card.
